10. To date, the contributions contractually due to the Fund have not been paid by the Defendant, although all contributions have been duly demanded and the Fund has been damaged in the estimated amount of $196,379.09.

11. The failure, refusal or neglect of Defendant to make the required contributions and reports to plaintiff Fund constitutes a violation of the Agreements between Defendant and the Union with respect to which plaintiff Fund is a third-party beneficiary.

12. Accordingly, Defendant is liable to the Fund for benefit contributions in the amount due for the period set forth above, plus such additional sums as same come due, plus such other contractual damages, including interest, liquidated damages, reasonable attorney's fees and costs incurred in bringing this action.

AS AND FOR A SECOND CLAIM FOR RELIEF

13. The Fund repeats and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs 1 through 11 of this Complaint, as if fully set forth herein.

14. Section 515 of ERISA (29 U.S.C. § 1145) requires employers to pay benefit contributions in accordance with the terms and conditions of collective bargaining agreements.

15. Upon information and belief, at all times material hereto, Defendant failed to pay or timely pay and/or submit the required monetary contributions and accurate reports to the Fund when due. Such failure to make payment or timely payment and/or submit reports constitutes a violation of Section 515 of ERISA (29 U.S.C. § 1145).

16. Section 502 of ERISA (29 U.S.C. § 11132) provides that, upon a finding of an employee violation of Section 515 of ERISA (29 U.S.C. § 1145), the Court shall award to a Further, Defendant's failure to submit full contributions and accurate reports has occurred with regularity over the course of five years. Defendant's prior conduct demonstrates a significant likelihood that it will continue to breach the terms of the Agreement.

20. The Fund has no adequate remedy at law to insure that Defendant will adhere to the terms of the Agreement.

21. As a result of Defendant's omissions and breaches of contract and violations of federal law, the Fund may be required to a.) deny employee beneficiaries, for whom contributions have not been made, the benefits provided under the benefit plans, thereby causing substantial and irreparable harm to said employee beneficiaries, or b.) to provide said beneficiaries the benefits, notwithstanding Defendant's failure to pay for said benefits, thereby reducing the corpus of the Fund and endangering the rights of all employee beneficiaries under the benefit plans, to their substantial and irreparable injury.

22. The Fund and the affected employees will suffer immediate and irreparable harm unless Defendant, its officers, agents, servants, and employees are enjoined from failing, refusing or neglecting to pay and/or submit the required monetary contributions and/or reports to the Fund.

23. Accordingly, the Fund requests that this Court issue an injunction preliminarily and permanently enjoining Defendant, its officers, agents, servants and employees and all persons in active concert or participation with Defendant, who receive actual notice of any order of the Court by personal service or otherwise from failing, refusing or neglecting to pay and/or submit the required contributions and reports to the Fund.
